Overview of topics

Exhibition "Female View - Fashion Photographers from Modernity to the Digital Age" (24 September 2022 to 15 January 2023)

In the exhibition, the transformation of the photographic image and its medial dissemination is presented aesthetically and located in the respective historical and social context: from the fashion magazine to the exhibition space and the coffee table book to video staging and, above all, to digital self-staging in today's social media, the relevance of which is constantly growing in the present. The development from the 1930s onwards will be exemplified by selected positions. This selection focuses on women photographers from Europe and the USA, with spotlights on developments in the respective fashion centres of the periods described.

Duration: 60 minutes

Note: Fee for the guided tour plus museum admission

Exhibition "FIELDS OF VIEW – 35th survey exhibition of the West German Artists' Association" (6 November 2022 to 20 February 2023)

Under the title FIELDS OF VIEW, around one hundred artists are exhibiting their work in the indoor and outdoor spaces of Museum Schloss Moyland and Museum Goch. On display are works of painting, sculpture, graphic art, photography and media art. The selection from the numerous applications was made by a jury of experts. Many young members of the association are given the opportunity to show their work in the survey exhibition. The current holders of the Ringenberg scholarship have also been invited as guests.
